

From: 123ContactForm noreply@123formbuilder.com
Subject: HWRD SKills Quiz Completed
Date: February 24, 2024 at 6:35 AM
To: info@wpgrefs.com

HWRD Skills Quiz

10 points out of 10

100%

(OPTIONAL) What is your email?

Team A is killing a 5 on 4 penalty and the puck is in Team A's end. There is less than 10 seconds left in the penalty. In the three official system, where should the back linesperson (the one who is not on the line) position herself? (HCOP Page 5-13 on the resources home page)

Correct

- a) as close to team A's blue line as possible in case to give two sets of eyes for a close play
- b) at team B's blue line to ensure coverage of the whole ice surface
- c) close to the red line such that the linesperson can easily cover for a break away of the player leaving the box.
- d) it does not matter. Just be wherever.

The whistle goes. What is the first responsibility of the linespeople in the three official system or officials in the two official system? (HWRD Resources Page, HCOP Manual 5-13)

Correct

- a) Retrieve the puck and set up the face off
- b) tackle the first player that misbehaves
- c) Create presence...Ensure that the players are leaving wherever the play was stopped and proceeding to the bench or face-off dot without any altercations
- d) Let your partner (two official system) or the Referee (in the three official system) talk the players out while you watch from the top of the circles to help with penalty calls.

During a game, an official calls a Gross Misconduct under Section 11 for something that was said. Who should write up the game report? (There is no resource for this answer...but think about who has the best description of the event)

Correct

- a) If the three-official system then the referee
- b) if the three-official system then the linesperson
- c) If the two-official system then the more senior of the two officials
- d) for either system, the official who assessed the penalty
- e) either b and c depending on the system

There are multiple fights on the ice at the same time, you and your partner should...(Altercation Management: Breaking up a fight in HWRD Resources-Procedures)

Correct

- a) split up to cover more ground.
- b) wait at the timekeeper's bench for everything to stop itself.
- c) work together, selecting one fight to break up, taking those players off the ice then moving onto another fight.

The referee can stop using: (At the 6:08 point of "How to Skate Like a Referee" Video in Professional Skills HWRD Resources)

Correct

- The Hockey Stop
- V-Stop Forwards
- V-Stop Backwards
- All of the Above
- None of the above

The linesperson (or the official at the blue line in the two-official system) is watching the play take place behind the net while standing at the blue line. Where should her skates (and body) be pointed? (Page 4 of "linesperson positioning at the blueline" found on the HWRD Resource-Positioning page of wpgrefs.com)

Correct

- a) straight down the blue line, 20-30 cms off the board so that the puck can go behind

ner

- b) straight down the blue line, back touching the boards so that she can stay out of the way.
- c) 20-30 cms off the boards, feet should always be square to the puck to allow for maximum choices to get out of the way.
- d) a and b only

The referee receives feedback from a mentor that the referee does not agree with; the referee feels "the mentor is JUST WRONG!". The referee should: ("Receiving Feedback" in HWRD Resources-Professional Skills)

Correct

- a) Say nothing, be completely quiet and take equipment off.
- b) Debate the feedback with the mentor.
- c) Say "thank you for the feedback" and store the feedback to think about later.
- d) Be open to the possibility that the feedback is legitimate, ask your referee-in-chief or another referee leader for their opinion at a later time if you are still unsure.
- e) Insist on explaining the call to sway the mentor's opinion
- f) c & d

According to Game Management and Impact Penalties (in the game management section of HWRD-Resources) which analogy best describes game management?

Correct

- A hockey game is like a wild beast that must be tamed before it gets away from you.
- A hockey game is like a bird, you want to hold it tight so it does not fly away but not so tight that you kill it.
- A hockey game is like the the ugly duckling, your job is to help it grow.
- A hockey game is like the tortoise and the hare, slow and steady is the best option.

In the two-official system, the official not dropping the puck does line change procedure. What are the reasons for this? (There is no specific resource for this question...take guess...)

Correct

.....

- a) because the roles of the official dropping the puck (conduct face-off) and the the official not dropping the puck (conduct line change) better mimic the roles of the referee and the linesperson in the three official system.
- b) the official not dropping the puck is usually in a better position to be seen by the benches
- c) because the referee not dropping the puck is always the senior official and the senior official always does the line change
- d) all of the above.
- e) A & B only

According to "Talking to Coaches" in the Game Management Section of HWRD Resources, which of the following statements is the better one to use when talking to a coach about a tripping call?

Correct

- a) "Coach, he stuck his leg out and made contact ankle to ankle not knee to knee so it is a two minute minor for tripping..."
- b) "From my angle, Coach, I saw his leg come out then contact was made ankle to ankle so I felt a tripping penalty was more appropriate."

