10 points out of 10 100%

(OPTIONAL) What is your email?

True or False. The referee stops play to call a penalty and the player who is to receive the penalty stops right beside her. The referee should follow the same procedure for calling a penalty and point at the player. (HWRD Resources-Procedures, Penalty Call Procedure)

Correct

☐ True. Always use the same procedure so that everyone in the arena knows who is getting a penalty.

☒ False. Use your voice and eye contact to communicate the penalty. Pointing could be startling or embarrassing for the player.

When should you enter a fight?
(Altercation Management: Breaking up a fight In HWRD Resources: Procedures)

Correct

☐ a) Immediately

☐ b) when the players have tired out.

☐ c) when you and your partner are ready to go in together

☒ d) a combination of b) and c)

☐ e) talk to the captain

☐ f) all of the above

☐ g) a, c, or e.

☒ h) a, d, or e.

In the Two-Official System, the official not dropping the puck does line change procedure. What are the reasons for this? (There is no specific resource for this question...take guess...)

Correct

☐ a) because the roles of the official dropping the puck (conduct face-off) and the official not dropping the puck (conduct line change) better mimic the roles of the referee and the linesperson in the Three-Official System.

☐ b) the official not dropping the puck is usually in a better position to be seen by the benches

☐ c) because the official not dropping the puck is always the senior official and the senior official always does the line change ☐ d) all of the above.

☒ e) A & B only

During a game, an official calls a Gross Misconduct under Section 11 for something that was said. Who should write up the game report? (again, there is no resource for this answer...but think about who has the best description of the event)

Correct

☐ a) If the Three-Official System then the referee

☐ b) if the Three-Official System then the linesperson

☐ c) If the Two-Official System then the more senior of the two officials

☒ d) for either system, the official who assessed the penalty

☐ e) either b and c depending on the system

A game report is required to be written because a Match Penalty (or a game misconduct, gross misconduct) was called during the regular season. How long does the reporting official have to submit the report to HW? (How to write a game report)

Correct

☐ a) 12 Hours

☐ a) 12 Hours.

☒ b) 24 Hours.

☐ c) 36 hours.

☐ d) 48 Hours.

Which side of the net should the referee in the Three-Official System (or the 2-official system official in the end-zone) stand for the penalty shot? (Resources Home Page: HCOP 4-10)

Correct

☐ a) neither side. Stand right behind the net to watch the player come down the ice.

☒ b) on the side of the net that is the same side as the player's stick blade.

☐ c) on the side of the net that is opposite side of the player's stick blade.

Linesperson A is forced to leave his line due to the play being in his feet. Linesperson B covers the line so that linesperson A can back away. When do the linesperson switch back? (HCOP Manual 5-12 found on the HWRD Resources Home Page)

Correct

☒ a) They do not have to switch back unless the play forces them to switch ends again.

☐ b) At the next stoppage.

☐ c) As soon as it is safe to do so.

True or false: the best linespeople make the referees' job easier by calling offsides, icings, and managing face-offs. (HWRD Resources home page, HCOP manual, page 5-12)

Correct

☐ True: linespeople focus on off-sides, icings, and face-offs

☒ False: Off-sides, icings and face-offs are only the basic skills of a linesperson. The best ones use awareness and presence to prevent bad things; to make the officiating team's job easier.

While waiting for players to line up for a faceoff, what is the official dropping the puck doing? (HCOP 3-3 on the resources home page)

Correct

☐ a) standing quietly near the face-off dot.

☒ b) encouraging players to get lined up in order to get the puck on the ice within 5 seconds of blowing his whistle.
