

From: 123ContactForm noreply@123formbuilder.com
Subject: HWRD SKills Quiz Completed
Date: October 29, 2021 at 10:02 AM
To: info@wpgrefs.com

HWRD Skills Quiz

10 points out of 10

100%

(OPTIONAL) What is your email?

info@wpgrefs.com

What types of penalties should a referee call? (Game Management and Impact Penalties Found in the resources section of wpgrefs.com)

Correct

- All penalties early in the game.
- The referee is responsible to call every penalty, no matter how minor.
- Impact penalties consistently, whether the game is early, in the middle or at the end. ✓
- Focus on the stick infractions since these are penalties related to using the stick as a weapon

According to "Blue Line Positioning", where should the linesperson position her skates when the puck is in the neutral zone and coming towards her end?

Correct

- 20 to 30 centimeters inside the blue line so that she is inside the attacking zone ✓
- 20 to 30 centimeters outside the blue line so that her skates are in the neutral zone
- On the blue line
- Near the top of the endzone circle.
- At the redline.

According to "Endzone Positioning" (Found in the HWRD resources-positioning section of wpgrefs.com), where should the referee be positioned when the puck is in the goal crease?

Correct

- Home Base
- Half-Piston
- At-the-net ✓
- Below the goal-line

According to "How to write a game report" (Found in the top right corner of wpgrefs.com) there are three parts to your incident report, what information should be included in the "middle" section?

Correct

- a) Information about your observations of the game that may have lead to the incident.
- b) Information describing the incident.
- c) Information explaining the penalty called and why that penalty was called.
- d) All of the above

When removing a fan from the arena for abuse of an official, how much time do you put on the clock ("Removing someone" in the HWRD resources-Game Management section) if the fan refuses to leave?

Correct

- No time on the clock, just wait.
- 2 Minutes on the clock
- 5 Minutes on the clock

Under what circumstances should the official being mentored ask questions about feedback given by the mentor. (See "receiving Feedback" in the HWRD Resources-Professional Skills section of wpgrefs.com)

Correct

- Never.
- When the referee feels the mentor is "Just wrong"
- When the referee needs to clarify the mentor's feedback to better understand.
- When a different mentor gave the exact opposite feedback and the official agrees with the other mentor.

Which best describes the motion of an official's arms when she is skating? (At the 28 second point of "How to Skate Like a Referee" Video in HWRD Resources-Professional Skills of wpgrefs.com)

Correct

- Swinging the arms across the body
- Arms move as though the official is

Arms move as though the official is "pulling the rope" up the ice.

Have the whistle near the mouth in case of a need to quickly stop play.

Arms at the sides, as little movement as possible to conserve energy.

True or False. The referee stops play to call a penalty and the player who is to receive the penalty stops right beside her. The referee should follow the same procedure for calling a penalty and point at the player. (HWRD Resources-Procedures, Penalty Call Procedure).

Correct

True. Always use the same procedure so that everyone in the arena knows who is getting a penalty.

False. Use your voice and eye contact to communicate the penalty. Pointing could be startling or embarrassing for the player

If you choose to talk to a coach between periods, when should you do so (HWRD Resources-Game Management, Talking to Coach)?

Correct

a) at the beginning of the intermission to get it over with

b) at the end of the intermission to give yourself an excuse to leave (i.e. I have to go drop the puck)

c) at the end of the intermission to give the coach a chance to cool down if he was heated.

d) at the beginning of the intermission to make sure that the coach does not forget

e) either b or c...always at the end of the intermission

f) either a or d, always at the beginning of the intermission

In the two official system, a penalty occurs in the attacking zone. Which official is allowed to call the penalty? (this is not clearly written anywhere, but page 4-6 of the HCOP manual (HWRD Resources Page) has a note that implies the best answer) .

Correct

a) The official in the attacking zone. The official at the blue line is responsible only for official at the blue line is responsible only for offsides or icings.

b) either official can call any penalty anywhere on the ice at any time; officials work as a team to call penalties in the two-official system.

c) The official at the blue line as she has a wider angle of view to the play

The message has been sent from 24.77.46.245 (Canada) at 2021-10-29 11:02:51 on Firefox 93.0
Entry ID: 291