

HWRD Skills Quiz

10 points out of 10

100%

(OPTIONAL) What is your email?

In the three official system, during the handshake line the referee should...
(Look in HWRD Resources-Procedures, Handshake Line)

Correct

- a) wait at the timekeeper's box
- b) be close to one of the linesperson
- c) be just far enough away so you can watch for big events
- d) leave the ice immediately. You are done.

Select the option that best describes "Home Base" (See "endzone positioning" in HWRD Resources-Positioning)

Correct

- a) Somewhere around the bottom of the circle; puck is on the far side of the ice.
- b) Very near the net; there is a scramble for a loose puck near the goal or goal crease
- c) Back against the boards, below the faceoff dot; Puck is on your side of the ice.

According to "The How-To of No Change Icing" (Found in HWRD Resources-Procedures), what is most important when determining which players stay on the ice?

Correct

- a) take as long as you need to get the right players on the ice.
- b) identify as many players of the offending team on the ice as possible but do not create a delay trying to figure who was on the ice at the time of the icing.
- c) who cares. Just drop the puck.

Which side of the net should the referee in the three-official system (or the 2-official system official in the end-zone)

Correct

stand for the penalty shot? (Resources Home Page: HCOP 4-10)

- a) neither side. Stand right behind the net to watch the player come down the ice.
- b) on the side of the net that is the same side as the player's stick blade
- c) on the side of the net that is opposite side of the player's stick blade

During an altercation in the two official system, what should the official who does not blow the whistle do? (HCOP 4-5)

Correct

- a) get in there and break it up.
- b) retreat to the penalty bench to report penalties to the timekeeper immediately.
- c) take up a position to see the players involved, the other players, and the benches (similar to a position taken by the referee in the 3-official system) while also being close enough to talk the players out of the scrum.
- d) remove all the players that are not "fighting" to their benches (goalies stay in their creases) using your voice and physical presence

At the end of the game, the buzzer goes. In the three-official system, the referee should...(HWRD Resources, HCOP 4-5)

Correct

- a) get as close to the players as possible to break up any scrums
- b) stay far away to see everything
- c) take up a position on the ice to see as much as possible but still maintain presence by being close enough to talk to the players on the ice

Which penalties require the official to write a game report following the game? (HWRD Resources, HCOP 4-4)

Correct

- a) Match Penalty
- b) Double minor
- c) Game Ejection
- d) Gross Misconduct
- e) Game Misconduct

- f) all of the above
- g) All except B
- h) A, D, and E

Who is responsible for conducting center ice face-offs at the beginning of periods or after goals? (HCOP 4-4 found on the Learning Resources Page)

Correct

- a) the referee in the three-official system
- b) the linesperson in the three-official system
- c) either of the officials in the two-official system
- d) either a) or c) depending on the system

Between periods (when there is a flood) or after the game a linesperson escorts both teams to the dressing rooms (as she should). What is the responsibility of the linesperson? (There is no clear answer to this one, but the best answer is based on the following information in the HCOP manual found on the HWRD resource home page; "presence" discussed on 4-6, "Reporting" discussed on 5-9, and Verbal/Non-Verbal Communication on page 4-11).

Correct

- a) watch for any infractions, mentally record, and report to the referee
- b) physically intervene in any yelling or pushing that occurs
- c) Verbally intervene as needed (calmly and assertively) but maintain your physical position between the two dressing rooms.
- d) Verbally intervene as needed (calmly and assertively) by walking down to one of the teams' dressing rooms.
- e) all of the above
- f) a & d only
- g) a & c only
- h) c or d, but it is not the linesperson's job to report penalties in the hallway

What is the best description of the official shaking hands with coaches at

Official shaking hands with coaches at the end of the game? (Look in HWRD Resources-Procedures, Handshake Line)

Correct

- a) This is part of your responsibility every time the games ends.
- b) Never.
- c) If it is practical but your main responsibility is to manage the players on the ice to ensure a safe exit...if you are managing the players you will probably not interact with the coach as you will be moving on the ice to maintain presence

The message has been sent from 24.77.58.107 (Canada) at 2023-11-26 21:34:10 on Firefox 120.0
Entry ID: 507